Make a wish

The Lucky Break Wishbones, from Lucky Break Wishbone, Seattle, is exactly that—wishbones. These replicas of the actual bone (only one per turkey) can be shared by everyone at Thanksgiving time or anytime they want to make a wish. Who needs birthday candles! The wishbones, made in the U.S., come in "funpacks" of four (SRP $3.99), five ($4.79), eight ($7.29) and 10 ($8.49). Floor displays that hold 100 packs of four wishbones can also be purchased as well as the 24-count party packs for $17.49. Additional packs of 12 through 400 wishbones are also available.
